In This Issue:

6 The Other Rules of the Game by Yank Poleyeff

Think the infield fly rule is confusing? That's nothing compared to knowing the intricacies of outright waivers, special waivers, and being designated for assignment.

36 The Inside Story by Jim Ingraham

Learn about the Tribe's gameplan and recent player acquisitions directly from General Manager Mark Shapiro who recently sat down with Ingraham for an informative interview. Player profiles compiled by Chuck Murr.

45 Blueprint for Success . . . The Next Phase

During the '90s, the Indians followed a gameplan of signing young talent to longterm contracts. The result was a baseball powerhouse. Now, the Tribe is poised to follow its patented formula once again – acquiring the young talent it hopes will reign in victories once again.

66 In Memory of Willis Hudlin . . . by Chuck Murr

Although older baseball fans and trivia experts may remember him as the man who gave up Babe Ruth's 500th homer, Hudlin, who died recently, is currently seventh on the Indians all-time win list and third among Tribe hurlers in the number of games pitched.

68 Tribe Funhouse by Chuck Murr

When is a no-hitter not a no-hitter? Trivia lovers, don't miss these great stories and brain-teasing baseball facts.

90 Farewell, Jimmy (Jim Warfield, 1941-2002)

Through 32 years with the Cleveland Indians, Trainer Jim Warfield touched the lives of so many – from players to coaches to front office staffers. Respected for his skill, befriended for his kindness, he will be sorely missed.
